Introduction

- 1 Your company used to organize events all around the world.
- 2 Next week, you have an event in Los Angeles and your colleague is on-site.

3

You will have to manage everything from your office in Belgium:

- collaborate with your colleague,
- share documents with him,
- promote the event,
- discuss with customers,
- getting things done,
- etc.

4

What kind of system will help you to manage everything without increasing your email overload?

Advantages of the Odoo Apps

- 1 Connect With Experts: get the right information in the right time.
- 2 Follow What Interests You: make the information flow across your company
- 3 Get Things Done: your inbox is a todo list

4 Promote Best Practices: discussion groups at your fingertips

5 Improve Access to Information and Expertise: easily find the information you need

6 Secure Collaboration

7 Twitter-like Network For Your Company

- Abraham Suniaga (asu)
- Ajay Javiya (aja)
- Akash Balar (aba)
- Alexandre Fellner (afe)
- Amit Dodiya (ado)
- Amit Vora (avo)
- Andrew Dickson (adi)
- Arnaud Pineux (api)
- Astrid Van Lierde (avl)
- Benjamin Gautier (bga)
- Bharat Devnani (bde)

On the left, a chat window titled 'Benjamin Gautier (bga)' is open. It shows a conversation:

- Aurore Lesage (ale) 11:31: Hello Benjamin, I need you help for my OpenDays presentation. Can you come to my desk asap please?
- Benjamin Gautier (bga) 11:32: Yes of course, I'm coming
- Aurore Lesage (ale) 11:32: thks a lot!

At the bottom of the chat window is a text input field.
